THE LIBRA FOUNDATION

2011 SPRING GENERAL GRANTS

ACLU Foundation
$60,000 New York, NY
To support the organization's Human Rights Program which uses human rights to advance the social justice issues of women's rights, children's rights, racial justice and government accountability.

Americans for Safe Access Foundation
$20,000 Washington, DC
For general operating support to promote safe and legal access to cannabis for therapeutic use and research.

Amnesty International USA
$35,000 New York, NY
To support the organization's work related to the Human Rights at Home campaign which calls for the domestic implementation of international human rights standards.

Breakthrough
$35,000 New York, NY
For general operating support to engage diverse constituencies in advancing racial justice, fair immigration policies and human rights in the U.S.

Center for Constitutional Rights
$25,000 New York, NY
For continued support of the Global Detentions and Rendition Project, an amalgamation of litigation, education, outreach, organizing, legislative and international advocacy dedicated to restoring the writ of habeas corpus, eliminating the practices of extraordinary rendition and illegal detention, ending the use of torture as an interrogation and detention method and holding human rights violators accountable.

Center for Reproductive Rights
$30,000 New York, NY
To support the organization's U.S. Legal Program in its efforts to use litigation, legislative and executive branch advocacy, field development and targeted communications to increase access to abortion and quality reproductive health care services, as well as to develop and apply new legal theories to expand understanding of reproductive rights as human rights.

Center for Women Policy Studies
$30,000 Washington, DC
To support the organization's national program for reproductive rights and HIV/AIDS policy in the US.

Chicago Foundation for Women
$50,000 Chicago, IL
For continued general operating support of advocacy, grantmaking, education and technical assistance programs and for the Catalyst Fund Matching Grant program which funds women-of-color led reproductive justice organizations.

Citizen Engagement Laboratory
$25,000 Berkeley, CA
For general operating support to engage diverse communities to demand rights via online action.

Drug Policy Alliance
$40,000 New York, NY
To support the organization's National Criminal Justice Reform Campaign to replace the current system of mass incarceration with an approach to drug policy reform that emphasizes public health and human rights.

Facing History and Ourselves
$30,000 Brookline, MA
To support dissemination of Fundamental Freedoms: Eleanor Roosevelt and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights—a curriculum which educates young people about the importance of protecting human rights.

Fund for Global Human Rights
$40,000 Washington, DC
For general operating support to strengthen grantmaking programs around the world and facilitate meaningful technical assistance to grassroots partners as they challenge abuses of power and work to build respect for human rights from the ground up.

Gender Action
$30,000 Washington, DC
For general operating support to ensure that International Financial Institutions' investments improve rather than harm poor women and men in developing countries.

Global Fund for Children
$50,000 Washington, DC
To support and strengthen grantee partners in the Safety Portfolio through investments in projects which promote and protect the rights of children and youth.

Global Fund for Women
$50,000 San Francisco, CA
For continued general operating support to sustain and expand investments in emerging women-led social change initiatives and strengthen the capacity of women's rights groups to achieve lasting social change.

Heartland Alliance for Human Needs & Human Rights
$60,000 Chicago, IL
To support Heartland Alliance's From Poverty to Opportunity Campaign—a grassroots human rights initiative that seeks to develop the political will and substantive policies necessary to make freedom from poverty in Illinois a reality—and to support website development.

Human Rights First
$25,000 New York, NY
To support the Law & Security Program which seeks to ensure that U.S. national security practices and policies uphold core human rights protections.

International Coalition of Sites of Conscience
$20,000 New York, NY
For the Guantánamo Public Memory Project which will raise awareness of how the Guantánamo facility has been used and reused over the last century and seek to foster action on its future.

International Development Exchange
$20,000 San Francisco, CA
For support of the organization's rights-based grantmaking efforts focused on women's empowerment, long-term economic development and sustainable natural resource management.

International Planned Parenthood Federation/Western Hemisphere Region
$50,000 New York, NY
For general operating support to expand advocacy initiatives to advance sexual and reproductive health and rights.

Ipas
$20,000 Chapel Hill, NC
To support global advocacy initiatives around progressive abortion policies.

Law Enforcement Against Prohibition
$25,000 Medford, MA
For general operating support to end the devastation caused by the war on drugs and for an organizational assessment to help the organization best take advantage of opportunities for growth.

Multidisciplinary Association for Psychedelic Studies (MAPS)
$35,000 Santa Cruz, CA
For support of a pilot study of MDMA-assisted psychotherapy in the treatment of U.S. veterans of the Iraq and Afghanistan Wars suffering from treatment-resistant PTSD.

National Immigrant Justice Center of Heartland Alliance for Human Needs & Human Rights
$30,000 Chicago, IL
To support the Detention, Democracy and Due Process (D3P) Project which seeks to ensure that the U.S government respects international human rights laws and standards for the vulnerable population of detained immigrants.

Planned Parenthood of Illinois
$50,000 Chicago, IL
To expand grassroots organizing efforts to help engage and empower women whose voices are not often heard on issues and policies that directly affect their access to reproductive rights and health care.

The Roger Baldwin Foundation of the ACLU
$60,000 Chicago, IL
To support the Reproductive Rights Project's use of litigation, public education and policy advocacy to protect and advance reproductive rights for women in Illinois, the Midwest and nationwide.

United Congress of Community and Religious Organizations
$20,000 Chicago, IL
For general operating support to advance human rights education and advocacy within marginalized communities.

U.S. Human Rights Fund
$100,000 New York, NY
For continued support of The Fund's broad based efforts to promote the understanding and use of human rights by social justice organizations.

U.S. International Council on Disabilities
$20,000 Washington, D.C.
For general operating support to engage in treaty ratification activities and to advance the integration of human rights and disability rights communities and agendas.

Women's Learning Partnership
$25,000 Bethesda, MD
For general operating support to provide training, capacity building, advocacy and curriculum development that advances women's rights worldwide.

Women's Link Worldwide
$35,000 Northfield, VT
For general operating support of the organization's efforts to advance women's sexual and reproductive rights, to combat gender violence and discrimination and to promote gender equality through the development and strategic implementation of international human rights law.

2011 SPRING BOARD DIRECTED GRANTS

Center for Sexual and Reproductive Biology, Health and Behavior at the University of Chicago
$20,000 Chicago, IL
To launch the Center for Sexual and Reproductive Biology, Health and Behavior at the University of Chicago.

Pitzer College
$50,000 Claremont, CA
To support Pitzer's mission of producing engaged, socially responsible citizens of the world through an academically rigorous, interdisciplinary liberal arts education emphasizing social justice, intercultural understanding and environmental sensitivity.

Shared Interest
$20,000 New York, NY
For support of Shared Interest's project Banking on Mentors in South Africa, which will help implement a pilot program to develop a network of mentors to work with Shared Interest's guarantee recipients.

2011 CONTINGENCY GRANTS

Sargent Shriver Center for National Poverty Law
$25,000 Chicago, IL
For a special edition of the Clearinghouse Review focused on human rights.