

2004 GENERAL GRANTS

American Jewish World Service

$50,000 New York, NY

To support the Women's Empowerment Fund, a grantmaking program that provides direct support and technical assistance to women-run projects in some of the poorest and most remote communities in the developing world.

Amnesty International USA

$25,000 New York, NY

To support the No Shelter from Violence project, a global campaign to stop violence against women.

As You Sow Foundation

$15,000 San Francisco, CA

For general operating support of the organization's promotion of corporate accountability, social justice, and environmental protection. As You Sow uses the unique tool of shareholder action – working with companies to change their practices through organizing the shareholders of the company.

Center for Economic Justice

$30,000 Albuquerque, NM

For general operating support to strengthen the organization's work of cross-border organizing, public education, movement-building, capacity-building and advocacy work for movements for economic and human rights.

Center for Women Policy Studies

$30,000 Washington, DC

To support the National Institute on State Policy on Trafficking of Women and Girls, a program that aims to define trafficking as a women's human rights issue and develop new policy analyses that will clarify the murky and difficult issues surrounding the debate about trafficking for progressive elected officials and their constituents.

Chicago Foundation for Women

$65,000 Chicago, IL

For general operating support of the organization's mission to raise and distribute funds to provide opportunities and promote solutions for all women and girls and to underwrite a visioning process for their future planning. The CFW provides grants for programs serving women and girls in the Chicago area, advocates that others increase their giving and develops women and girls as philanthropists.

Global Greengrants Fund

$75,000 Boulder, CO

For general operating support of 15-25 grassroots groups working to live sustainably, preserve biodiversity, and gain a voice in the future.

Human Rights Watch

$25,000 New York, NY

To support the Women's Rights Division program which uses an international human rights framework to identify violence and discrimination against women and to establish government responsibility for preventing and remedying these abuses.

Indian Law Resource Center

$50,000 Helena, MT

To support the Indian Rights Initiative that works to overcome the serious problems that Indian and other indigenous peoples face by using international human rights mechanisms to preserve their human rights and dignity.

International Planned Parenthood Federation/ Western Hemisphere Region Inc.

$30,000 New York, NY

For general operating support to maintain access to high-quality sexual and reproductive health services in Latin America and the Caribbean.

Movement Strategy Center / Youth Media Council

$20,000 Oakland, CA

For general operating support of media capacity building, development of relevant replicable models, strategic media coordination, and media accountability organizing of marginalized communities.

National Center for Human Rights Education

$50,000 Atlanta, GA

To support capacity building, the development of new programs, and the hiring of additional staff to meet the growing demand for Human Rights Education training.

Population Council

$75,000 New York, NY

To support the Protecting Girls' Rights Across the Marital Boundary project, a multi-tiered effort in multiple sites that aims to sensitize and provide evidence-based insight into policy development, and rigorously evaluate innovative programs aimed at this neglected population of girls.

Community Media Workshop

$20,000 Chicago, IL

For general operating support to promote a broader more inclusive dialogue by conducting training programs in effective communication strategies, fostering dialogue among and between community groups, businesses, academic institutions, government entities and the mass media, and providing information to the media and others about efforts to help solve social and civic problems.

Democracy Now! Productions Inc.

$30,000 New York, NY

For general operating support of the organizations non-commercial national daily news and information broadcasts that provides its audience with trustworthy, independent information on issues relating to war and peace, U.S. foreign and domestic policies, police brutality, labor struggles, women's rights, the environment, health care, human rights and globalization.

EarthRights International

$60,000 Washington, DC

For continued general operating support of all programs addressing human rights, environmental protection and women's rights. EarthRights International combines the power of law and the power of people in defense of human rights and the environment, our earth rights.

EnGenderHealth

$15,000 New York, NY

For general operating support to maintain the immense global needs for family planning and reproductive health services.

Environmental Health Coalition

$30,000 San Diego, CA

For general operating support of the major organizational and campaign objectives, including leadership development, voter engagement, border environmental justice, campaign to eliminate childhood lead poisoning, and the Clean Bay Campaign.

Environmental Law and Policy Center

$30,000 Chicago, IL

To support the Chicago Clean Air and Clean Water Initiatives that works to reduce air and water pollution in the Chicago metropolitan area.

Gender Action

$25,000 Washington, DC

For general operating support of the promotion of women's rights and gender equality and to ensure women and men equally participate in and benefit from multilateral investments in developing countries.

Rex Foundation

$30,000 San Francisco, CA

To support re-granting to grassroots organizations in California that address environmental sustainability (sustainable agriculture; preservation, conservation, and restoration; and environmental justice) and capacity building to broaden funding base.

Sargent Shriver National Center on Poverty Law

$40,000 Chicago, IL

To support the Women's Law and Policy Project, a powerful new social systems change advocacy tool to work for laws and policies that ensure low-income women's financial, physical and emotional well-being.

Shared Interest

$25,000 New York, NY

For general operating support of the organization's goals to build economically self sufficient and healthy communities in South Africa.

SIECUS

$30,000 New York, NY

For general operating support of the organization's goal to ensure every person has access to comprehensive information about sexuality and reproductive health issues, the services available to control their health and futures and the rights to act on their choices.

Sustain

$20,000 Chicago, IL

To support the Sustainable Business Program made up of two projects that promote sustainable and socially responsible business; the Chicago Sustainable Business Development project and the FamilyFarmed.org project.

The Roger Baldwin Foundation of ACLU

$30,000 Chicago, IL

To support the Reproductive Rights Project that assists in litigation and public education to safeguard reproductive freedom in Illinois and to ensure that all women have access to appropriate and freely chosen reproductive health services.

WITNESS

$30,000 Brooklyn, NY

For general operating support to advance human rights advocacy through the use of video and communications technology.

The Women of Color Resource Center

$70,000 Oakland, CA

To support the Welfare Rights Education and Human Rights Program, a project that takes a human rights approach to the issue of women's economic and reproductive rights in California.

Global Fund for Children

$50,000 Washington, DC

To support the Hazardous Child Labor Grantmaking Portfolio program that assists the work of community based groups around the world addressing the abuses of children in labor situations.

Global Fund for Women

$60,000 San Francisco, CA

To support for their global program on Advancing Women's Health and Sexual & Reproductive Rights to seed and strengthen grassroots women's organizations in order to build long-term capacity for mobilization and social change in this area.

Heartland Alliance

$50,000 Chicago, IL

For general operating support and to support the underwriting of the Chicago Area Human Rights Report.

2004 DISCRETIONARY GRANTS

Baring Witness Project

$1,500 Marshall, CA

To support the National Vote and Register campaign, a feature documentary, a photographic book and a museum exhibition, all involving men and women who create words of peace with their bodies.

Bay Area Video Coalition, Inc.

$50,000 Stinson Beach, CA

To support the production of The Bolinas Lagoon Film Project, a once healthy estuary on the west coast that's complex and fragile ecosystem is rapidly becoming endangered.

Chicagoland Chamber of Commerce Foundation

$14,000 Chicago, IL

To support the Chicago Conservation Center/Chicago Park District Mural Project that supports the restoration of 52 murals located within 11 Chicago Park District Field Houses to ensure their preservation for future generations.

EarthWatch Institute

$10,000 Maynard, MA

To support the organization's mission to engage people worldwide in scientific field research and education to promote the understanding and action necessary for a sustainable environment.

Women's Learning Partnership

$25,000 Bethesda, MD

For general operating support of the organization's goal to help women change the socio-cultural, economic and political power structures that create and maintain social inequities and gender injustice in their communities.

Women's Link Worldwide

$50,000 Northfield, VT

For general operating support and capacity building/technical assistance to consolidate its programmatic base and establish organizational stability.

Medical Students for Choice

$5,000 Oakland, CA

To support the organization's dedication to ensuring that women receive the full range of reproductive healthcare choices.

Peace Action

$5,000 Silver Spring, MD

For general operating support to focus on building and strengthening the Campaign for a New Foreign Policy, a program designed to provide activists with common sense alternatives to pre-emptive war.

Preserve the Dunes, Inc.

$15,000 Riverside, MI

To support the organization's goal to protect the sand dunes and adjacent duneland ecosystems in Southwest Michigan from impairment and destruction by sand dune mining, over-development and inappropriate use.

Stanford University

$75,000 Stanford, CA

Multi-year grant to support the Pritzker Undergraduate Education Fund that supports undergraduate education at Stanford University.

The Foundation for National Progress

$5,000 San Francisco, CA

To support the Mother Jones State of the Union Project that seeks to enliven the public debate about important issues and to provide Americans with more of the facts they need for informed decisions and actions.

Grantmakers Without Borders

$1,000 San Francisco, CA

To support the organization's work towards a just world by increasing strategic and compassionate funding for international societal change.

Heartland Alliance

$5,000 Chicago, IL

To support media activities associated with the release event of In Our Own Back Yard: Human Rights in the Heartland, the first ever report on the state of human rights in the Midwest.

2004 BOARD DIRECTED GRANTS

Pitzer College

$125,000 Claremont, CA

To support capital improvements to the College's Residence Halls.

PRBO Conservation Science

$15,000 Stinson Beach, CA

To support The Palomarin Field Station Conserving Critical Habitats Project.

The University of Chicago

$10,000 Chicago, IL

To support the Dr. Atef Moawad Fund for Perinatal Research program that honors Dr. Moawad's name and dedicates its support to women's health in perpetuity.

San Francisco Suicide Prevention

$10,000 San Francisco, CA

To support the general operations of the crisis line program.

Stinson Beach Community Center

$10,000 Stinson Beach, CA

To support the Stinson Beach Community Center's Restoration Project.

2004 SPECIAL FUNDS

POST ELECTION CONVENING FUND

An effort to support the development of Post Election Action Convenings – strategy sessions with colleagues within and across issue areas - to ensure that organizations are poised to face the challenges and opportunities that will arise in the next four years as a result of recent elections.

Amnesty International USA

$6,000 New York, NY

To support A Turning Point for Human Rights, a convening of the Executive Director's Leadership Council (EDLC) to tackle head on the consequences of the election results and the U.S. administration's policies to the future of human rights.

Center for Women Policy Studies

$6,000 Washington, DC

To support the Post Election Action Convening of Progressive Women State Legislators Expanding Our Advocacy on U.S. Foreign Policy, a convening that not only re-energizes legislative leaders but also brings newly emerging leaders into the world of foreign policy advocacy early in their legislative careers.

Indian Law Resource Center

$6,000 Helena, MT

To support research, planning, networking and organizing a pilot project to respond to the U.S. Supreme Court nominations and selected other judicial appointments that are nearly certain to take place over the next few years.

International Planned Parenthood Federation/ Western Hemisphere Region Inc.

$6,000 New York, NY

To support Strengthening Partnerships to Counter the Attack on Sexual and Reproductive Health and Rights in Latin America and the Caribbean, a convening with progressive religious institutions to strategize on responses to the challenges posed to the sexual and reproductive health and rights movement by the religious right and the Bush Administration.

Chicago Foundation for Women

$6,000 Chicago, IL

To support Bridging the Gap: Standing on Common Ground, a series of convenings that bring together donors, grantees and other government and community leaders in a social change discussion designed to frame key issues concerning the future of communities across Metropolitan Chicago.

EarthRights International

$6,000 Washington, DC

To support the publication of a report describing the Bush Administration's attack on international law and the rule of law at home, as well as organize strategy meetings to make rule of law and international law political issues in the United States.

Environmental Health Coalition

$6,000 San Diego, CA

To support the convening of leading public interest environmental attorneys and grassroots environmental and social justice activists to frame strategies to fight back against the Bush Administration's anti-environmental policies and practices, particularly in the pivotal Midwest states.

Global Fund for Women

$6,000 San Francisco, CA

To support Globalizing and Localizing Women's Rights as Human Rights: 30 Years Since Mexico City, a gathering to bring together women from the US, Canada, and countries of the global South to engage in authentic dialogue to highlight our respective concerns, to understand the relationships among those concerns, and to delineate joint plans of action and research. This convening also seeks to emphasize the mobilization of US activists to respond to the negative impact that US policies are having on women's rights globally.

Global Greengrants Fund

$6,000 Boulder, CO

To support the Global Greengrants Fund's Advisory Board Retreat that will bring together the organization's coordinators and advisors for in-depth substantive discussions and to connect in person with activists outside their own country and to exchange ideas.

National Center for Human Rights Education

$6,000 Atlanta, GA

To support the southeast regional "Where do we go from here?" post-election human rights caucus, a project to demonstrate to progressive activists the political power of human rights as the umbrella under which they can advance their demands for accountability from our leadership to enact policies designed to meet human needs.

Population Council

$6,000 New York, NY

To support a meeting with representatives of the Council's key colleague organizations to develop new formats for presentations to community- and faith-based audiences that adhere to the science but also spur interest in essential development issues.

Sustain

$6,000 Chicago, IL

To support a meeting with George Lakoff to educate nonprofit leaders on the value of issue framing: using lessons learned from the election on how Republicans apply this concept to great success.

The Roger Baldwin Foundation of ACLU

$6,000 Chicago, IL

To support the convening of two special meetings of ACLU members, collaborating organizations, and local leaders in two targeted downstate Illinois communities. The goal is to present and discuss the major concerns facing the advancement of civil liberties and human rights during the next four years and to strategize together to ensure a readiness to face the challenges and opportunities that will arise.

The Women of Color Resource Center

$6,000 Oakland, CA

To support the convening of the Count Every Vote 2004 (CEV) strategy session being held in Montgomery, Alabama to consider the CEV strategy document and reach consensus on a common election reform and to form a Southern election reform network.