

2005 GENERAL GRANTS

American Civil Liberties Union Foundation

$15,000 New York, NY

To support the International Human Rights Program, to expand the use of the international human rights framework to protect civil rights in the U.S., particularly in the area of national security and immigrants' rights; women's rights; and criminal justice.

American Jewish World Service

$25,000 New York, NY

For continued support for the Women's Empowerment Fund, a grantmaking program that provides direct support and technical assistance to women-run projects in some of the poorest and most remote communities in the developing world.

Applied Research Center

$15,000 Chicago, IL

To support the Racial Justice Leadership Initiative, a program to strengthen the capacity of community-based organizations and leaders to engage in education and action to advance racial equity.

Center for Economic Justice

$30,000 Albuquerque, NM

For continued general operating support to strengthen their cross-border organizing, public education, movement-building, capacity-building, and advocacy for movements for economic and human rights.

Center for Women Policy Studies

$25,000 Washington, DC

To support the Foreign Policy Institute for State Legislators, a program that brings women state legislators to Washington D.C. each year for an intensive program designed to educate them about the impact of US foreign policy on women worldwide and to prepare them as foreign policy "influencers".

Chicago Foundation for Women

$56,300 Chicago, IL

For continued general operating support of the organization's mission to raise and distribute funds to provide opportunities and promote solutions for all women and girls in the Chicago area. A portion of this grant also supports an email infrastructure capacity-building project.

Community Media Workshop

$15,000 Chicago, IL

To support the Human Rights Framing Project to develop the communications' aspect of shifting to a human rights frame.

Democracy Now!

$30,000 New York, NY

For continued general operating support to produce and distribute Democracy Now!, a non-commercial, daily news and information program broadcast nationally in collaboration between public and community radio, public access cable TV, satellite TV, and the internet.

International Planned Parenthood Western Hemisphere Region

$50,000 New York, NY

Continued general operating support to provide quality, comprehensive sexual and reproductive health information and services to the women, men and young people of Latin America and the Caribbean, to advocate for potentially life-saving services and to enable their 46-member associations throughout the region to advocate for sexual and reproductive health and rights.

Movement Strategy Center/Youth Media Council

$20,000 San Francisco, CA

Continued general operating support for media capacity building and technical assistance for grassroots social justice groups, the development and distribution of relevant and replicable models, strategic media coordination to amplify the public voice of youth and increase movement effectiveness, and youth-led media policy organizing of marginalized communities.

National Center for Human Rights Education

$40,000 Atlanta, GA

For continued support for their development capacity building efforts.

Planned Parenthood/Chicago Area

$15,000 Chicago, IL

To support the Public Policy program, to protect and increase access to comprehensive family planning, medical services and sex education and to mobilize advocates for reproductive health and rights.

Population Council

$45,000 New York, NY

For continued support of Protecting Girls' Rights Across the Marital Boundary, a multi-tiered effort in multiple sites that aims to sensitize and provide evidence-based insight into policy development, and evaluate innovative programs aimed at this neglected population of girls.

Population Media Center

$15,000 Shelburne, VT

For general operating support to improve the health and well being of people around the world through the use of entertainment-education strategies, educating people about the benefits of small families, encouraging the use of effective family planning methods, elevating women's status, promoting gender equity and bringing about stabilization of human population numbers at a level that can be sustained by the world's natural resources.

EarthRights International

$45,000 Washington, DC

For continued general operating support of their three strategic program areas: Legal, Campaigns and Earth Rights schools. EarthRights International combines the power of law and the power of people in defense of human rights and the environment.

Environmental Health Coalition

$25,000 San Diego, CA

For continued general operating support for their local, regional and statewide environmental justice efforts that build a strong leadership development program to support successful policy and community organizing objectives.

Environmental Law and Policy Center

$20,000 Chicago, IL

For continued support for the Chicago Clean Air and Clean Water Initiatives that works to reduce air and water pollution in the Chicago metropolitan area.

Family Violence Prevention Fund

$30,000 San Francisco, CA

To support the Building Common Ground: Human Rights, Violence Prevention and Reproductive Justice project, an initiative to promote collaboration between reproductive rights, women's rights and violence prevention rights activists to strengthen human rights and prevent division.

The Fund For Global Human Rights

$15,000 Washington, DC

For general operating support to enhance its ability to raise funds and distribute them to human rights organizations in places with great need and minimal access to funding, to deepen existing programs, add new regions to its grantmaking, and attract new donors to human rights.

GenderAction

$50,000 Washington, DC

For continued general operating support to promote women's rights and gender equality in the investments, policies and strategies of the International Financial Institutions. A portion of this grant also supports development capacity-building efforts.

The Global Fund For Children

$30,000 Washington, DC

To support international re-granting in its Commercial Sexual Exploitation of Children and Hazardous Child Labor grantmaking portfolios, working with community-based groups that are providing children with the skills and knowledge they need to change their lives for the better.

Global Fund For Women

$50,000 Washington, DC

For continued support of its thematic grantmaking area of Advancing Health and Sexual Reproductive Rights, to seed and strengthen grassroots women's groups around the world working to advance women's health and reproductive rights.

Rex Foundation

$10,000 San Francisco, CA

For continued support for re-granting to grassroots organizations in California that address environmental sustainability (sustainable agriculture; preservation, conservation, and restoration; and environmental justice).

Sargent Shriver National Center on Poverty Law

$25,000 Chicago, IL

For continued support of the Women's Law and Policy Project, a powerful social systems change advocacy tool to work for laws and policies that ensure low-income women's financial, physical and emotional well-being.

Shared Interest

$15,000 New York, NY

For continued general operating support to build economically self sufficient and healthy communities in South Africa through its guarantee fund.

SIECUS

$30,000 New York, NY

Continued general operating support to shape and advance the discussion around sexuality, promote supportive public policies, provide essential resources and expertise, lead educational efforts, and increase the recognition of universal sexual rights to ensure that every person has access to comprehensive information and services about sexuality and reproductive health issues.

U.S. Human Rights Network

$15,000 Atlanta, GA

For general operating support to build the Network's activities and infrastructure, increasing its visibility and establishing it as a coordinating center for U.S. human rights organizations and grassroots activists.

The Roger Baldwin Foundation of ACLU

$25,000 Chicago, IL

For continued support of the Reproductive Rights Project that assists in litigation and public education to safeguard reproductive freedom in Illinois and to ensure that all women have access to appropriate and freely chosen reproductive health services.

The White House Project

$15,000 New York, NY

To support the Total Security project, a partnership with The National Council for Research on Women, The Project on Defense Alternatives, and The American Prospect Magazine that seeks to widen the parameters of the American discussion on security and security policy and promote women as equal partners with men in re-framing the dialogue to ensure long-term security.

Global Greengrants Fund

$25,000 Boulder, CO

For continued general operating support to strengthen the organization's grantmaking to small, grassroots environmental groups around the world.

Heartland Alliance For Human Needs and Human Rights

$50,000 Chicago, IL

For continued general operating support to advance the human rights and respond to the human needs of endangered populations by providing comprehensive and respectful services and promoting solutions. A portion of this grant also supports the creation of a Human Rights report, establishing a Midwest-based Freedom Index to better understand the human rights environment.

Human Rights Watch <http://hrw.org/>

$20,000 New York, NY

To support their campaign to counter the Bush Administration's campaign to withhold HIV/AIDS information through the implementation of abstinence-only-until-marriage programs both domestically and in the developing world.

International Development Exchange

$15,000 San Francisco, CA

To support the Asia Program, which works with partner organizations in Southern Asia to advance women's empowerment through training for income-generating activities, leadership development, and access to micro-credit.

Ipas

$15,000 Chapel Hill, NC

To support the Advocacy and Action on Reproductive Rights project, a policy program with the broad goal of linking supporters of safe legal abortion to a world community that values women's reproductive rights and choice and building support for abortion policy reform around the world.

Wild for Human Rights

$15,000 San Francisco, CA

For general operating support strengthen women's leadership in advocating for public policy that aim to reduce gender-based discrimination in California, by utilizing a human rights framework.

Witness

$30,000 New York, NY

For continued general operating support to advance human rights advocacy by empowering human rights defenders to use video as a tool to shine a light on those most affected by human rights violations, and to transform personal stories of abuse into powerful tools of justices.

The Women of Color Resource Center

$20,000 Oakland, CA

To support the Peace and International Solidarity Program in its development, promotion and distribution of curriculum that provides popular education resources on the complex dynamics of militarization, gender and race.

Women's Learning Partnership

$30,000 Bethesda, MD

For continued general operating support to strengthen their programs that seek to empower women and girls in Africa, Asia, and the Middle East to achieve their rights and effectively participate in social justice advocacy, changing the socio-cultural, economic and political power structures that create and maintain social inequities and gender injustice in their communities. A portion of this grant also supports organizational capacity building.

Women's Link Worldwide

$40,000 Northfield, VT

For continued support of their strategic planning and organizational consolidation capacity building efforts.

2005 DISCRETIONARY GRANTS

Grantmakers Without Borders

$2,500 Boston, MA

A Member Leadership Grant to support the implementation of a strategic plan and work towards a just world by increasing strategic and compassionate funding for international social justice and environmental sustainability.

National Network of Grantmakers

$2,500 Minneapolis, MN

For general operating support as part of the Supporting Institutions program to educate and promote progressive philanthropy as a strategy that truly makes a positive difference in people's lives and to move more current and new philanthropic resources to progressive action.

2005 BOARD DIRECTED GRANTS

Bay Area Video Coalition, Inc.

$50,000 Stinson Beach, CA

To support the production of The Bolinas Lagoon Film Project, a documentary about the once healthy estuary on the west coast that's complex and fragile ecosystem is rapidly becoming endangered.

CASA San Miguel

$5,000 Brooklyn, NY

For general operating support to offer a program of hospitality to the homeless, the disadvantaged, and the migrant and seasonal farm laborers living in the community.

MAPS

$10,000 Belmont, MA

For general operating support to fulfill its work as a membership-based research and educational organization assisting scientists to design, obtain approval for, fund, conduct and report on research into the healing and spiritual potentials of psychedelics and marijuana.

New Orleans Jazz Orchestra

$10,000 New Orleans, LA

For general operating support to proliferate and structurally brand New Orleans based jazz.

2005 SPECIAL FUNDS

TSUNAMI RELIEF AND REBUILDING FUND.

To support relief and rebuilding efforts in areas affected by the December 26, 2004 Southeast Asia Tsunami.

American Jewish World Service

$50,000 New York, NY

To support the American Jewish World Service's Tsunami Relief and Reconstruction Fund.

Global Fund for Children

$50,000 Washington, DC

To support the Global Fund for Children's Tsunami Emergency Relief and Reconstruction Fund.

Global Greengrants Fund

$50,000 Boulder, CO

To support the Global Greengrant's Tsunami Relief Fund.

International Rescue Committee

$50,000 New York, NY

To support the International Rescue Committee's Tsunami Relief Fund.

Oxfam America

$50,000 Boston, MA

To support Oxfam's Tsunami Relief and Global Emergency Fund.