

2010 SPRING GENERAL GRANTS

ACLU Foundation

$60,000 New York, NY

To support the organization's Human Rights Program which uses human rights to advance the social justice issues of women's rights, children's rights, racial justice and government accountability.

Amnesty International USA

$35,000 New York, NY

To support the organization's work related to the Human Rights at Home campaign which calls for the domestic implementation of international human rights standards.

Breakthrough

$35,000 New York, NY

For general operating support to engage diverse constituencies in advancing racial justice, fair immigration policies and human rights.

Center for Constitutional Rights

$20,000 New York, NY

For continued support of the Global Detentions and Rendition Project, an amalgamation of litigation, education, outreach, organizing, legislative and international advocacy dedicated to restoring the writ of habeas corpus, eliminating the practices of extraordinary rendition and illegal detention, ending the use of torture as an interrogation and detention method and holding human rights violators accountable.

Center for Reproductive Rights

$30,000 New York, NY

To support the organization's U.S. Legal Program in its efforts to use litigation, legislative and executive branch advocacy, field development and targeted communications to increase access to abortion and quality reproductive health care services, as well as to develop and apply new legal theories to expand understanding of reproductive rights as human rights.

Chicago Foundation for Women

$50,000 Chicago, IL

For continued general operating support of advocacy, grantmaking, education and technical assistance programs and for the Catalyst Fund Matching Grant program which funds women-of-color led reproductive justice organizations.

Citizen Engagement Laboratory

$20,000 Berkeley, CA

For general operating support to engage diverse communities to demand rights via online action.

Drug Policy Alliance

$20,000 New York, NY

To support the organization's National Criminal Justice Reform Campaign to replace the current system of mass incarceration with an approach to drug policy reform that emphasizes public health and human rights.

Facing History and Ourselves

$30,000 Brookline, MA

To support dissemination of Fundamental Freedoms: Eleanor Roosevelt and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights—a curriculum which will bring the message about the importance of protecting human rights to young people.

Fund for Global Human Rights

$35,000 Washington, DC

For general operating support to strengthen grantmaking programs around the world and facilitate meaningful technical assistance to grassroots partners as they challenge abuses of power and work to build respect for human rights from the ground up.

Gender Action

$30,000 Washington, DC

For general operating support to ensure that International Financial Institutions' investments improve rather than harm poor women and men in developing countries.

Global Fund for Children

$40,000 Washington, DC

To support and strengthen grantee partners in the Safety Portfolio through investments in projects which promote and protect the rights of children and youth.

Global Fund for Women

$50,000 San Francisco, CA

For continued general operating support to sustain and expand investments in emerging women-led social change initiatives and strengthen the capacity of women's rights groups to achieve lasting social change.

Global Justice Center

$25,000 New York, NY

For the U.S. Engagement with International Law project which focuses on repealing the Helms Amendment to the Foreign Assistance Act.

Heartland Alliance for Human Needs & Human Rights

$50,000 Chicago, IL

To support Heartland Alliance's From Poverty to Opportunity Campaign—a grassroots human rights initiative that seeks to develop both the political will and substantive policies necessary to make freedom from poverty in Illinois a reality.

Human Rights First

$25,000 New York, NY

To support the Law & Security Program which seeks to ensure that U.S. national security practices and policies uphold core human rights protections.

International Coalition of Sites of Conscience

$20,000 New York, NY

For the Guantanamo Public Memory Project which will raise awareness of how the prison has been used and reused over the last century and will seek to foster action on its future.

International Development Exchange

$20,000 San Francisco, CA

For support of the organization's rights-based grantmaking efforts focused on women's empowerment, long-term economic development and sustainable natural resource management.

International Planned Parenthood Federation/Western Hemisphere Region

$50,000 New York, NY

For general operating support to expand advocacy initiatives to advance sexual and reproductive health and rights.

Ipas

$20,000 Chapel Hill, NC

To support global advocacy initiatives around progressive abortion policies.

National Immigrant Justice Center of Heartland Alliance for Human Needs & Human Rights

$25,000 Chicago, IL

To support the Detention, Democracy and Due Process (D3P) Project which seeks to ensure that the U.S. government respects international human rights laws and standards for the vulnerable population of detained immigrants.

Physicians for Human Rights

$20,000 Cambridge, MA

For continued general operating support of the organization's efforts to investigate and document human rights violations, organize health professionals to advocate against these violations, hold perpetrators accountable and eliminate discrimination and inequalities that undermine health.

Planned Parenthood of Illinois

$50,000 Chicago, IL

To support the Campaign for Reproductive Health and Access in its work to build field operations and create an active base of public support that will engage policymakers to supporting legislation that protects and advances Illinois women's reproductive health and rights.

Population Council

$40,000 New York, NY

To support the Rethinking Sexuality Education project which aims to widely disseminate It's All One Curriculum—a newly published gender-sensitive, rights-based resource kit for sex and HIV education.

Rex Foundation

$20,000 San Francisco, CA

To expand the impact of The World As It Could Be Human Rights Education Project which uses the creative arts to teach students about the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

The Roger Baldwin Foundation of the ACLU

$60,000 Chicago, IL

To support the Reproductive Rights Project's use of litigation, public education and policy advocacy to protect and advance reproductive rights for women in Illinois, the Midwest and nationwide.

United Congress of Community and Religious Organizations

$20,000 Chicago, IL

For general operating support to advance human rights education and advocacy within marginalized communities.

U.S. Human Rights Fund

$100,000 New York, NY

For continued support of The Fund's broad based efforts to promote the understanding and use of human rights by social justice organizations and for the Human Rights Accountability Campaign sub-fund.

U.S. International Council on Disabilities

$20,000 Washington, D.C.

For general operating support to engage in treaty ratification activities and to advance the integration of human rights and disability rights communities and agendas.

Women's Learning Partnership

$25,000 Bethesda, MD

For general operating support to provide training, capacity building, advocacy and curriculum development that advances women's rights worldwide.

Women's Link Worldwide

$35,000 Northfield, VT

For general operating support of the organization's efforts to advance women's sexual and reproductive rights, to combat gender violence and discrimination and to promote gender equality through the development and strategic implementation of international human rights law.

2010 SPRING BOARD DIRECTED GRANTS

Global Heritage Fund

$5,000 Palo Alto, CA

For general operating support to preserve and protect important archaeological and cultural heritage sites in developing countries.

Multidisciplinary Association for Psychedelic Studies (MAPS)

$25,000 Santa Cruz, CA

For support of a pilot study of MDMA-assisted psychotherapy in the treatment of U.S. veterans of the Iraq and Afghanistan Wars suffering from treatment-resistant PTSD.

Mother Jones / Foundation for National Progress

$50,000 San Francisco, CA

For general operating support of its work to produce revelatory journalism that seeks to inform and inspire a more just and democratic world.

Pitzer College

$50,000 Claremont, CA

To support Pitzer's mission of producing engaged, socially responsible citizens of the world through an academically rigorous, interdisciplinary liberal arts education emphasizing social justice, intercultural understanding and environmental sensitivity.

Shared Interest

$25,000 New York, NY

For support of Shared Interest's work to create and implement a web-based impact reporting system that will allow for improved data collection from its South African borrowers while improving its reports to donors and investors.

Women's Empowerment Network

$5,000 Olympia, WA

For support of the Maria Luisa Ortiz Cooperative in Mulukuku, Nicaragua.